

Bylaw Officer Training:

11-15 March 2014 (finishing at 12noon on Saturday, March 15th)

Hotel Arctic, Iqaluit

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
10	11	12	13	14	15
Travel to Iqaluit	0900 Introductions & Review of course objectives MTO	0900 Bylaw Officer Authorities & Powers GN Dept of Justice	0900 Dispute & Conflict Resolution NAC	0900 Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC)* refresher training Iqaluit Firearms Safety Training	0900 Practical component of Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC) Iqaluit Firearms Safety Training
	0930 Gap Analysis of Bylaw Officer training expectations (developing future courses for Nunavut's Bylaw Officers) Aarluk	1030 Dispute & Conflict Resolution* NAC	1200 Lunch	1200 Lunch	1200 Course Complete
	1100 Creation of the "Nunavut Association of Bylaw Officers", establishment of association bylaws and election of officers Aarluk	1200 Lunch	1300 Dispute & Conflict Resolution* NAC	1300 Dispute & Conflict Resolution NAC	1300 Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC)* refresher training Iqaluit Firearms Safety Training
	1200 Lunch	*Topics to be covered include: - Sources and types of conflict - Basic tools of conflict resolution - Conflict resolution processes - Cross cultural implications	*Topics to be covered include: - Sources and types of conflict - Basic tools of conflict resolution - Conflict resolution processes - Cross cultural implications	* The Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC) is a basic firearms safety training course. It is designed to give the student a working knowledge of safe firearms handling and familiarity with the laws and procedures regarding gun ownership in Canada.
	1300 Municipal Court Q&A Session NCJ Snr JP	1500 Municipal Enforcement Officers & working with the RCMP RCMP			